Scenario 4 (Restriction – Hostile application)

Note:
Fee values used in this document are for example and are subject to change.

4. Scenario 4:

Restriction - Hostile application

Margaret Joyce Barber owns a property, registered at HMLR under title number GR518197. There is a mortgage on the property (Abbey National PLC). Margaret is in financial difficulties and has failed to acknowledge or pay her credit card (Abbey National Card) for the last six months. Abbey National have applied to the courts for a Charging Order to recover their debt should the property ever be sold. An Interim Order is issued to the debtor by the courts without a hearing, normally it outlines the date for the Charging Order hearing (21 days notice must be given) which will be heard in front of a District Judge. As a precaution the conveyancer acting for Abbey National sends application to HM Land Registry to register a restriction, preventing any disposition of the property. The Land Registry will also inform the debtor in writing that an Interim Order has been made.

Documents required by HM Land Registry:
AP1
RX1
Evidence

LR Do not require any representation details for this application.

NB: An RX1 is an application form in its own right and if it is the only application it does not require an AP1. For this scenario a gateway customer will have to submit AP1 information as they have no other means to submit the application. Some of the required AP1 data will already be on the RX1 form.

4.1 Main flow to request Official Copy with a register extract using the title number – not necessary for usual every day use but just for showing the register in the 'before' state.

Test: RES using TN 01
Test purpose: This will return the 'before application' register and extracted data

4.2 Electronic Document Registration Service

Send the AP1. Note: If a different messageId is used, the return is the same apart from the ABR which will default to A123BCD and the UniqueId will reflect the one sent in.

Once the application has been processed a poll request for the completed application can be made. For the test stubs this has already been processed and so the poll can be completed at anytime.

For the live service it will be expected that the outstanding request service will be used to confirm if a response has been generated, and is ready for collection.
